To whom it may concern,

I am writing to inform you that Julie Wilkinson delivered two full days of training for students and teachers at the Lyceum in January and February of 2017. Julie worked an intensive day into the evening. The passion she has for her field was impressed upon all she came into contact, her energy and delivery kept everyone's attention. During the two days she completed solutions to bullying, solutions to stress and anger and in addition she delivered the champion peer mentoring session to our senior boarders.

The training was thoroughly well received and gave a real impetus to the staff and student body to recognise that the topics being covered occur in their own environment and to commit to dealing with the issues. I would absolutely recommend Julie to deliver any of the above topics at your institution.

Yours Faithfully,
